REVISED EDITION – UPDATE

PLEASE NOTE THAT NONE OF THE STATEMENTS MADE IN THESE ENTRIES ARE SPECIOUS AND THAT THEY ARE SUPPORTABLE WITH DOCUMENTS AND EXHIBITS.
James R. Aymann (Jim) is not an attorney, he is a worker. We believe that these stories are both timely and compelling.

James R. Aymann (Jim) is a combat veteran of the Vietnam War with a service connected disability and he celebrated his 71st birthday a few days ago.

In August 2014, Jim created the website-onemansfightagainstcorruption.net

In the past year alone, (July 2015 – July 2016) this website has had over 14,000 visits, to include Europe, Asia, Latin America, Australia, New Zealand with a following from China, Ukraine and Brazil.

To date, Jim has no accounting for visits by mobile phones and backdoor visits that include phrases and this is without the aid of press releases, networking, advertising etc.

Jim has also received hundreds of favorable emails in reference to this website from all over the world.

What is interesting is that Jim has essentially added nothing to this website in the past year.

However, Jim has posted several articles on the Internet under pseudonyms. One of these articles has had a resurgence due to availability to mobile phones and is on track to pass 15,000 visits in three months worldwide.

There is a populist movement that is sweeping across this country!

This movement is deeply factionalized with progressive sentiments at one end of the spectrum and reactionary sentiments at the other end but the common theme and the common thread that runs through this movement is the complete and total disgust by the populace involving the corruption in the private sector (big business) and the corresponding corruption of government at all levels that includes all branches.
“Most hated professions-Top 10 List” states

2 Lawyer 13%

They are the bottom feeding scum of the earth. Their goal and only goal is to get your money out of your bank account into theirs. Then leave you in debt as much as they can. They pretend they are your best friend but when it is all said and done if you called them a week later they don’t even know your name. Forgot this. Tell you something one day and as time goes by they lie and say they never said that. They are all show in the court room but are actually friends probably laughing at there clients while playing golf or at lunch on how much money they got. Think about it what is a judge? Former lawyer. What are our law makers and politicians? Former lawyers. What a racket they got going huh? Last but not least they are all scum bags and how they can sleep at night with what they do to people is beyond me. They are just cold blooded humans with no shame. I was thinking about becoming a lawyer but the only problem is I am warm blooded and a person that cares.

Based on personal experiences, Jim submits that this writer nailed it!

Nevada received a failing grade of “F” and is fifth from the bottom amongst all 50 states!

Public access to information, political financing, electoral oversight, Legislative accountability, Judicial accountability, procurement, internal auditing, lobbying disclosure, ethical enforcement agencies, ad infinitum received failing grades in the State of Nevada!

To be blunt, Nevada industry, to include lawyers, in conjunction with Nevada government at all levels is a labyrinthine sewer of corruption and deception draining into a cesspool and that cesspool are the Nevada courts at all levels!

Are you getting the picture yet!
Opposition to Plaintiff’s Motion for Consolidation and Continuance of Hearing for Motion to Dismiss Set for 8/15/13 and 8/20/13; and Extend Plaintiff’s Time to File an Opposition

Defendants respect and appreciate Plaintiff’s service to his country. However, insofar as Plaintiff’s continuing, implied pleas for special treatment on the grounds that he is a combat veteran with PTSD, the Court should ignore the same and take notice that one of the Defendants being sued by Plaintiff is also a combat veteran who served in the 82nd Airborne, 1st of the 505 Parachute Infantry Regiment during Operation Desert Shield and Operation Desert Storm, witnessing thousands of casualties on the front lines of the combat theater. See Exhibit “2”.
At no time did James Aymann request special treatment based on his service connected disability!

This paragraph is a mouthful and impressive at first glance, however upon further examination John C. Courtney’s military occupational specialty is 11 C indirect fire infantryman.

An indirect fire infantry man is in fact a member of a mortar platoon.

A mortar platoon is always 2 to 3 miles behind the frontlines in support if needed of the actual infantry on the frontlines.

lawyer John Peter Lee  lawyer John C Courtney
In August 1990, the 505th Infantry Regiment was airlifted to Saudi Arabia as part of Operation Desert Shield.

This was in fact a staging area in preparation for a coordinated attack by the coalition forces. This staging phase took place in Saudi Arabia for five months.

There were no confrontations with the Iraqi forces during Desert Shield.

The ground phase of operation Desert Storm commenced on February 25, 1991.

In a rapid three-day drive, the Desert Storm Forces routed the Iraqi Army in one of the most stunning victories in modern warfare.

This blitzkrieg assault consisted of armored units and air support.

Infantry units were virtually unused to obviously include the use of mortar platoons.

The Iraqi Army was literally allowed to retreat back to Iraq virtually unimpeded.

President Bush signed a cease-fire 100 hours into Desert Storm, concluding this conflict.

147 soldiers were killed in action in this entire conflict and additional 460 soldiers were wounded for a total of 614 casualties.

However, the fact that the actual conflict only lasted for three days was cause for thankful joy.

James Aymann is a combat veteran of the Vietnam War and will always honor and revere anyone killed or wounded in battle especially his fellow GIs.
Once again, this document signed by lawyer John Peter Lee, supported by lawyer John C. Courtney’s discharge certificate states,

“… One of the Defendants being sued by Plaintiff is also a combat veteran who served in the 82\textsuperscript{nd} Airborne of the 505\textsuperscript{th} Parachute Infantry Regiment during Operation Desert Shield and Operation Desert Storm witnessing thousands of casualties on the front lines of the combat theater.”

This is the most heinous and fraudulent example of “Stolen Valor” that James Aymann has ever encountered!

James Aymann’s Military Occupational Specialty was in fact 11 B Infantry.

The 60\textsuperscript{th} Infantry Brigade was the first unit to enter the Mekong Delta, an enemy stronghold.

The fighting was continuous and fierce in triple canopy jungle, mangrove swamps and rice paddies.

The North Vietnamese Army and the Vietcong proved to be more than formidable opponents.

They were the finest jungle fighters in the world, fighting a war of attrition and guerrilla warfare.

The casualty rate was high on both sides.

On April 15, 1967, James Aymann virtually lost every friend he had in half an hour!

On June 22, 1967, James Aymann was transferred to the 196\textsuperscript{th} Light Infantry Brigade.

A special CAC unit was formed north of Chu Lai consisting of half army and half Marine personnel.
On August 13, 1967 James Aymann was promoted to Fire Team Leader.

James was in charge of day patrols into the mountainous jungle, night ambushes in the rice patties and small heliborne incursions etc.

This is still a source of extreme pride for James to this day.

The Vietnam War lasted 14 years from 1961 to 1975.

58,169 soldiers were killed in action and another 304,000 were wounded in action.

For lawyer John Peter Lee and lawyer John C. Courtney to imply any comparison between the Vietnam War and Desert Storm is a disgrace!

To further imply that James Aymann and John C. Courtney had similar combat experiences is both disgraceful and insulting to James Aymann and to the soldiers that fought in Vietnam and to the soldiers that fought and died in Vietnam.
Also note unknown to the military, James Aymann was brought to the United States by his parents at the age of five and did not become a naturalized American citizen until January 1971. He was an illegal alien.

James wants to be perfectly clear, at no time would he ever instruct anyone, under any circumstances, to ignore any veteran’s established service-connected disabilities!

The Stolen Valor Act of 2013 was introduced in January of that same year by our very own Representative Joe Heck.

Upon signing this bill, President Barack Obama stated, “It may no longer be a crime for con artists to pass themselves off as heroes, but one thing is certain – it is contemptible.” (Of course, this bill was overturned by the U.S. Supreme Court)

There is not one solitary judge that served in the military in the State of Nevada!

The same can be virtually stated for the rest of the country!

For the United States Supreme Court to overturn the Stolen Valor Act because an individual has the freedom of speech to lie about their military experiences or to even lie about being in the military is a national disgrace.

Joe Heck is running as a Republican Candidate for the United States Senate.

Joe Heck served in the military and holds the rank of general.

For the first time in James Aymann’s 71 years, he will be voting for a Republican Senator in the upcoming election.

Episode 4

Regarding the reprehensible written statement submitted to Judge Kerry Louise Earley by lawyer John Peter Lee and lawyer John C. Courtney, James Aymann vehemently complained of this unwarranted and reprehensible statement by these lawyers in a court document.

Judge Kerry Louise Earley literally ignored these statements and James Aymann’s subsequent complaints.

Judge Kerry Louise Earley also supported these lawyers Motions for Dismissals to include lawyer Paul C. Ray and lawyer Yvette Freedman.

James Aymann appealed this Court Order to the Supreme Court of the State of Nevada.

The Supreme Court of the State of Nevada reversed the dismissal of four causes of action in James Aymann’s lawsuit.
It took well over two years for James Aymann to win his appeal in part.

John Peter Lee is now dead and has subsequently escaped testifying under oath as to the deceptive and outright reprehensible treatment of his client James Aymann.
